

The Kid family is here to entertain you, to inspire you,
and to help you learn English.

These are Jim and Sara. They're very smart, strong, and fast.
They like to wander around the yard.

Thomas is in the back of an old truck. He's lying and playing with his phone.
He seems to really enjoy himself.

Where is Thomas?

What is he doing?

Is he playing with his brother or with his phone?

Is he smiling or frowning?

On Saturday evenings, the Kid family spends time together. They talk, read books, and play games. They laugh a lot too. Especially when little Lisa starts to dance. That looks very funny.

Does the Kid family spend time together on Saturday evenings?

When do they spend time together—on Saturday evenings or Monday mornings?

Do they laugh when they're together?

Do they laugh a little bit or a lot?

Do they laugh when Lisa dances?

Why do they laugh when Lisa dances?

Who dances— Wendy or Lisa?

For more pictures, questions, answers, and audio recordings check The Kid Family Story comic book and audio recordings.

During the lunch break, the kids eat lunch in the school cafeteria.
Some of them eat school lunch; others bring their own food.

What do the kids do during the lunch break?

What is a lunch break?

Where do the kids eat lunch—in the school cafeteria or in their classrooms?

Do they play baseball or eat lunch in the school cafeteria?

Do all kids bring their own food?

What do some kids bring—a book to read or their own food to eat?

For more pictures, questions, answers, and audio recordings check The Kid Family Story comic book and audio recordings.

